JUDGMENT

(Filed September 10, 1971)

Before: McGowan and Tamm, Circuit Judges, and Matthews,* Senior District Judge.

The above cases came on to be heard upon petitions to review, and on cross-application for enforcement of, orders of the National Labor Relations Board dated June 25, 1969, against George A. Angle, d/b/a Kansas Refined Helium Company, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns. The Court heard argument of respective counsel on November 3, 1970, and has considered the briefs and transcripts of records filed in these cases. On May 27, 1971, the Court being fully advised in the premises handed down its opinion denying the petitions for review and granting enforcement of the Board's said orders.

*Sitting by designation pursuant to Title 28, U.S. Code Section 294(c).

ON CONSIDERATION WHEREOF, it is ordered and adjudged by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, that the said orders of the National Labor Relations Board be, and the same are hereby enforced; and that George A. Angle, d/b/a Kansas Refined Helium Company, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, abide by and perform the direction of the Board in said orders contained.

/s/ Carl McGowan
Circuit Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit
